

Reports to: Music Director

Summary

The Augusta Symphony seeks a talented, aspiring conductor to work closely with the Music Director and any guest conductors. Assistant Conductor will serve as cover conductor for all classical and pops performances and may conduct certain concerts as assigned.

Assistant Conductor shall receive per-service compensation as well as mentorship and tutelage through Music Director. This is a one-year position with the possibility of a one-year extension.

Candidates must be eligible for employment in the United States.

Responsibilities

- Be present at and fully prepared to conduct rehearsals and concerts, in case of main conductor's absence
- Conduct off-stage music as required. May be assigned to conduct in educational and/or family concert settings.
- Assist with multimedia performances, recordings and streaming projects
- Assist with programming (including Pops) if necessary
- Be present and involved in Augusta Symphony's fundraisers and social events

Requirements

- At least two to four years of professional or collegiate conducting experience
- Broad knowledge of the orchestral repertoire
- Knowledge of the Pops repertoire and willingness to research and learn

Compensation

Position is compensated on a per service basis with a maximum annual salary of $10,000.

To Apply

Send cover letter, resume and video links to positions@augustasympphony.com.

No phone calls, please.

Videos: Include links to three videos, with varying repertoire, of the candidate conducting an orchestra or ensemble, shot from the orchestra's perspective.

Select candidates may be asked to interview in person in Augusta, GA.

Deadline to apply : July 1, 2022